

Remittance Advice Message

For April 2008

Transporation Provider Address

Dear South Dakota Medical Assistance Provider: "Important Message - Please Read"

When submitting origin/destination information for multiple trips for the same recipient on the same day, South Dakota Medical Assistance rule provides for coverage to and from medical providers.

South Dakota Medical Assistance cannot identify a medical provider by the street address of their facility. Effective with today's date all destinations must have the name of the medical facility, medical doctor, etc. on the claim when necessary. Provider street addresses will no longer be accepted.

If you have questions, please call the Telephone Service Unit at 1-800-452-7691.
Out of state providers may call 605-773-3495 and ask for the service unit.
